STINGERS HAMMER U.Q.T.R. - MOORE POTS FIVE

RECAP

The Concordia Women's hockey team broke out of their scoring slump with a vengeance last week. After not registering a goal against the top three N.C.A.A. teams the previous weekend, the Stingers rolled over Les Patriotes 15-0. Nancy Moore, playing in her first league game as a Stinger, scored 5 goals in the win. Moore has experience with John Abbott College and will take some of the scoring pressure off Therese Brisson. Rookie Janet Neely had 4 goals (9, 10, 11, 12) in her biggest offensive outburst of the season. Line Mercier (2nd), Jacqueline Montpetit (9th), France Sabourin (4th) and Therese Brisson (32nd) had the other Stinger markers. Montpetit chipped in with 6 assists and Brisson had 5 assists. Brisson now has 32 goals and 26 assists in Concordia's 24 games.

Concordia travels to McGill February 2 before hosting the 20th Annual Therese Humes Invitation Tournament.

STINGERS HAVE STRONG SHOWING AGAINST LAVAL

RECAP

A loss is never good, but when you are in the midst of a rebuilding program and a member of the toughest conference in Canada, a silver lining can be found in a loss.

Such was the case Friday as the Stingers went down to defeat against 9th ranked Laval, 52-42. Carol Assalian, a first team Q.U.A.A. all-star last season, had 18 points for the Stingers. Sophomore forward Carole McIntyre (Pierrefonds, Que.) chipped in with 11 points and the Stingers outscored Laval 26-33 in the second half.

Earlier in the week the Stingers fell to Bishop's 77-49. After being down by 6 at half-time the experienced Gaiters took control against the nation's youngest team. Rookie Suzi Czelnai, a member of Quebec's 1987 Gold Medal Winning Canada Games team, netted 13 for the Stingers. Carole McIntyre, a member of that same Quebec team, contributed 12 points. The Stingers must put two halves together in order to win in the Q.U.A.A. After 24 straight losses in league play the Stingers will be looking to upset McGill January 26 at Loyola Gym.

STINGERS DEMOLISH MCMASTER

Concordia lost their first game of 1988 Friday night. The 10-5 Brock Badgers took advantage of the Stingers 10 hour bus ride and defeated the Stingers 5-2. Mike Deegan (5th) and Dave Kasper (1st) replied for the Stingers. Concordia outshot Brock 38-31. The second period was the difference as the Stinger sharp shooters could not muster a goal in their 20 shot onslaught.

On Saturday's 13-1 romp over McMaster, Captain Mark Mahon led the way with a hat trick (#18,19,20). Mahon had missed the previous four games due to an injured elbow. Mike Deegan (6th and 7th) and Richard Laplante (31st and 32nd) had a pair each for Concordia. Ken Marshall (2nd), David Long (3rd), Richard Vermette (14th), Martin Foy (9th), Frank Sinfield (11th) and Allan Rekunyk (4th) also replied for the Stingers. Goaltender Dave Sharpe was outstanding in net stopping 33 McMaster shots.

Dave Kasper, brother of Boston Bruin star Steve Kasper had 2 assists and played a regular shift on defence for the Stingers. With a suspension to Marc Lalonde the previous game, Kasper and rookie Blake Hambleton were pressed into duty on the blue line. Both players will likely remain on defence the remainder of the season.

ROCKIN RICHARD

First year Stinger Richard Laplante had his 23 & 24 goals in league play this weekend. Laplante now has 40 points and remains in 4th place in O.U.A.A. scoring. Laplante needs only 2 goals to tie Doug Feasby's goal scoring record. Laplante remains among the elite goal scorers in North American college hockey.

STINGERS UPSET 7TH RANKED BISHOP'S

RECAP

Concordia came up with their biggest win of the year earlier last week. The Stingers upended 7th ranked Bishop's 68-64 to even their league record at 2 and 2. Sophomore guard Marlon Paul led the Stingers with 20 points. The 6'2" Montreal native has been averaging 16 points per game. Co-captain Parnell Joseph (17 P.P.G.) chipped in with 19 points as the Stingers have now defeated 4 teams in the top ten.

The Stingers travelled to Trois Rivieres Friday and continued their Jekyll and Hyde act. Concordia lost their second road game of the year to U.Q.T.R., 90-77. All-Canadian hopeful Nick Arvanitis (18 P.P.G.) was the lone bright spot for Concordia as he netted 26 points and pulled down 10 rebounds. Mike Cohee contributed 12 points coming off the bench. The Stingers record dropped to 2-3 in league play. The Stingers host McGill January 26 as they fight for a play-off spot.

MENDLESOHN LEADS CONCORDIA WRESTLERS AT GUELPH OPEN

RECAP

Dave Mendlesohn	143 lbs	1st place
Dave Hohl	177 lbs	1st place
Serge Marcil	190 lbs	1st place
Bob Watson	125 lbs	9th place
Tom Rebelo	148 lbs	5th place
Sean O'Heany	167 lbs	6th place

Seven Concordia wrestlers took place in the Guelph University Open this past weekend. Dave Mendlesohn, a first year English major was voted Outstanding Wrestler as he won the 143 lb category. Mendlesohn defeated the #1 ranked wrestler in Canada in his weight class. The victory over Marty Calder of Brock should propel Mendlesohn into the upper echelon in the 143 lbs category.

Rookie David Hohl and former national champion Serge Marcil also took gold medals for Concordia. Next action for Concordia wrestlers is January 30 when they travel to U.N.B.
